In the Circuit Court.

In Judge Paul's court yesterday a verdict for the plaintiff was rendered in the case of Hess vs. Woods et al.

In Judge Campbell's court the case of the city vs. S. Baer's Sons & Co. was amicably settled without trial and dismissed.

A Boy Thief Released.

The little Martin boy, whose arrest for stealing from Hayden's five and ten cent store was chronicled in yesterday's paper, was brought up before Squire Arkle yesterday, but after an informal examination by the justice, was let go, as Mr. Hayden concluded not to prosecute him on account of his youth.
The boy's name is not Deiters, as printed yesterday. He lives with a Mr. Deiters.

Transfers Recorded.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record transfers of real estate as follows: December 12, by William P. Hubbard, special commissioner, to George S. Simmon, for $600, lots 28, 29 and 30 in plat 2 of the William Porter estate.

December 17, by John Marshall to Charles Dannenberg and Henry Dannenberg, jr., for $4,500, lot 8 in square 16, in the town of South Wheeling.

This is one company that is not afraid to tell the public who and what they are.
